13th March 2020

Dear Parents and Carers,

Thank you for your support and patience during this uncertain time. Yesterday, I am sure you all heard Boris Johnson telling everyone that schools were not closing and that they were not limiting number of people attending events, therefore we as a school are open for business as usual. The Government is now asking anyone with a new persistent cough or high temperature (37.8 or higher) to self-isolate for seven days. This is regardless of whether they have travelled to affected areas, due to this new guidance and as the situation develops and advice changes, we may be required to cancel events and visits, possibly at very short notice.

If, at any stage, the school has to close its doors, we of course will ensure that there is work made available online for you to continue at home.

We ask that you continue to keep those affected by this in your prayers, particularly for those who are isolated and without help during this time.

Year 3 Trip

Year 3 had a once-in-a-lifetime trip this week to the Saatchi Gallery to see the treasures of the golden pharaoh, Tutankhamen. The children were inspired by seeing the artefacts that were taken from his tomb and are now being taken on tour and displayed around the world. During this trip, the children had extra careful attention paid to hand sanitising to keep them clean and safe.

Year 3/4 Swimming Gala Preliminaries

Representatives from a Year 3 and 4 attended the Cally pool on Tuesday to take part in time trials to qualify for the swimming gala that will take place on the 20th of March. There were more preliminaries taking place on Wednesday and Thursday and we await the results for our children who represented the school very well indeed. Good luck team.

School Governors

This week, our school governors were invited in to meet with their link teachers. Governors spent time discussing their subject and what the lead teacher hopes to achieve by the end of the year. Both governors and teachers found their meetings beneficial. Some meetings are still due to take place.

Year 1 Class Assembly

Well done to our Year 1 class and their message to share Jesus' love. Well done to the children who stood in at the last minute for those who were off school.
